Dana Fletcher of Georgetown joins Ag Credit staff in Lexington

Dana Fletcher, a resident of Georgetown, has joined Ag Credit staff at the association's Lexington Branch. She has already assumed her duties and will be a loan assistant.

The Lexington Branch of Ag Credit serves six (6) central Kentucky counties, including Scott, Fayette, Woodford, Jessamine, Franklin and Clark. That branch of the association currently has a loan volume outstanding in excess of $70 million.

Dana has been a substitute teacher in the Scott County School System for the past five years and her previous experience included working as an accounting clerk for the Lexington Housing Authority.

She earned her Associates Degree in Accounting from the Kentucky College of Business in Lexington and has also attended Georgetown College to pursue a degree in education. Dana is a native of Bourbon County. She and her husband, Gary, reside in Georgetown. They are parents of two daughters and a son.

Dana enjoys sports with her children at Georgetown Middle School and she facilitates bible study at Harmony Christian Church in Georgetown.
