Dear Teachers of Central Kentucky:

You are invited to a very special half-day seminar to explore how to help your students learn a true appreciation for the art of music and how it positively affects their lives, families, friends and community. As a leader in the arts, don't miss this opportunity to bring excitement, enjoyment and learning to your classrooms. For FREE. This is a very special one day seminar to explore this topic and sample the new WoodSongs Classroom project for your students.

The day will include lectures, discussions, music performances by several incredible youngsters ... you will be awestruck ... a showing of the film Walden: The Ballad of Thoreau, how to use the WoodSongs Classroom and associated lesson plans (middle, high school and college) and how to launch a School Music Series, an actual in-school WoodSongs Coffeehouse.

Visit the CLASSROOM page at WoodSongs.com for more information. You can register now for your FREE TICKET(s) to the seminar. We will have plenty of inspiration, music, refreshments and fun.
